Dos Lagos Search comes to an end: It seems that Dos Lagos has ended its search for a "female, African-American, 30-39, racially ambiguous-looking, corporate-type" has come to an end with the soon to be released website-makeover! Don't believe me? See for yourself HERE!

Original classified read:

DOSLAGOS.NET is casting a host for doslagos.net, a website dedicated to the concept of building sustainable communities through a balance of economic, social, and environmental needs. Shoot starts late Feb. in Corona.

Seeking—Host: female, African-American, 30-39, racially ambiguous-looking, corporate-type. Email pix & résumés to... Professional pay, meals, and travel provided.

Silver Dollar Pancake House: Just a shameless plug for the restaurant. It is a hole-in-the-wall located in downtown Corona on 6th Street, but man is the breakfast is good and worth discovering; I also recommend the coffee! Arrive early, the lines are long!!!

Website Traffic: Mycitycorona.com is having one of the BIGGEST months in its history and we had to put the car in park for a second to say THANK YOU! Without all of you, we could not be the defiant, pesky, irritating and somewhat over-zealous types we are! And to thank you, we are going to give you the fullest, richest and best website possible!!! But wait, there's more...since you acted NOW (and in the past), we are going to throw in a "Come back anytime", "See you soon" and "Make yourself at home"; how's that for hospitality?
