

Light Notes (06/20/07)

Corona Heritage Museum: I attended the Corona Heritage Museum and Park Antiques Festival about a week or so ago...ran into Mayor Montanez and Councilman Skipworth. It was a pleasant trip since we have never attended and we walked away with some really nice items (and homemade lemonade for my Son). While I was there, I picked up a Corona Arts Newsletter and figured I would share it for all of the 'Artsy'

Crossroads Christian Schools: Crossroads Christian Schools is proud to announce the opening of their brand new facilities for preschool through eighth grade at the corner of Fullerton and Ontario in Corona for the fall of 2007. For the past twenty-eight years Crossroads Christian Schools has been serving [Read More]

Fly by night: I have been doing Mycitycorona.com for a little over 2 years now...why? Because most websites suck and don't give you what you really want (we fool ourselves into believing we deliver what you want...no one tells us otherwise). There are 50,000 sites out there that are 'nifty' directories and are as stale as old toast. It came to my attention that a promising Inland Empire Website bit the dust recently...what can I say, we sail on!

Riverside Tyler Mall Directory: In the ever evolving world that is Mycitycorona.com, we have put together a store directory together with phone numbers, sorry Husbands! Click HERE to look up your favorite store or eatery!
