

North Main Plaza

One of the more notable partnerships created in recent years is with Main River Partners, new owners of the North Main Plaza, formerly known as the Butterfield Square Shopping Center. This shopping center was built during the 1970s and was in need of a full makeover. Main River Partners rehabilitated the entire commercial center and in addition, utilized the excess open areas to construct new commercial retail and restaurant space.

Accomplishments:

- ~ 184,958 square feet of existing commercial space rehabilitated
- ~ 32,580 square feet of new commercial space constructed
- ~ 13,950 square feet of new restaurant space constructed
- ~ New improvements to common areas (i.e. lighting, landscaping, parking areas, etc.)
- ~ New Tenants: Walgreen's, Don Jose's Mexican Restaurant, Fat Daddy's Chicago Bistro & BBQ, Jack in the Box, The Avenue, Sally's Hair Supply, Brooklyn & Co Hair Salon, Something SAAVI Boutique, and many more retailers.
